

Joann CÔTÉ

Joann Côté was born in Montreal. Her studies in women's fashion led her to understand that her interests did not lie as much in cloth design but in the spirit and avant-garde movement of the industry. For almost ten years now, Joann Côté has devoted herself exclusively to painting, sculpture and performance art.

«Just as journalist I strive to reconstitute the little pieces of our society out of which a sickness emerges. The search for happiness versus the suffering of humanity in self-search is at the center of my work. These soft and sinuous curves reflect the chaotic world in which love and hatred woo. »

Recipient of numerous awards, her art pieces are found in many private and corporate collections in Canada, United States and Central America.
